

Rainbow Oberon and Titania

Cartoon strips – The Trojan War – Angel and Abi

and George

Carrie's War descriptive writing and letter from Emil.

Carrie's War

Dear Diary,

Today I had a rather disturbing experience, Auntie Lou was ill and so Albert and I had to go and get the Christmas goose from Druid's Bottom. We left off at around six before dark. When we got to the path down to Druid's Bottom it became dark and eerie, the yew trees seemed to cave in and make it spooky. Halfway down the path I heard a strange noise but we kept walking but we still heard the noise, by now it had become dark so Nick started to cry, he is such a baby. The noise started to sound like a laugh and a gobble, I have to admit I was a tiny bit scared. The noise kept coming and so I shouted that we should run. We started sprinting down the path, my heart was pounding so fast, the noise kept coming, I am pretty certain it was a monster or a troll. We were sprinting very fast and saw the house close to us. I grabbed Nick's hand so we could keep up and sprinted like I'd never done before but when I reached the door, to my horror, it wouldn't open, the monster was now moving closer towards us. The seconds it took to open the door felt like hours, I prayed for the door to open. Finally it did, we tumbled inside safe and warm.

Dear Mother and Father,

I hope you are in good health, we are very well and living like in the countryside. We live with a lovely Aunt Lou, she is very nice. We live in a grocery store and we help sell goods. Our journey to the countryside was good but Albert ate too much and was sick.

We also live with a man named Mr Evans, he is Aunt Lou's brother. He is an interesting man and is very strict, he sets lots of rules to keep order. A couple of days ago, Albert got in a bit of trouble, he stole a few biscuits from the shop, don't worry though because it is done and over with.

Don't worry too much about us,

Love Albert and Carrie