Johnny's writing – very detailed and neat 😊

The lovers fall out Puck leads Helena to Demetrius whereupon Lysander appears and rebukes his love Helena. when Demetrius who is sleeping close by wakes up and sees Helena he does fall madly in love with her under influence of the magic flower.

Helena now thinks she is being made fun of by both young men.
When Hermia appears, she accuses Helena of being in on the joke as well.
Hermia tells Lysander is making when she asks him to stop Lysander turns on her Hermia then turns on her even ^{thinking} that she has seduced Lysander with her magic.

All four lovers almost come to blows at which point Oberon appears and freezes them where they stand. By now utterly furious he commands Puck to lead the lovers through the forest until they all fall asleep and then to charm Lysander eyes that he might fall in love with Hermia again. Puck summons a thick fog and reappears to lead the lovers their separate ways through the woods.
