

Summer

- Summer has been doing different things as her act of kindness. Mostly helping me with her brothers, clearing dining table after meals, helping tidy up on an evening.

Ruby

- Ruby kindly shared her sweets (from Halloween) and we have had random kisses.

Eloise

- Eloise is thankfully a very kind and considerate little lady (although she has her moments); here she is loading the dishwasher. We had plenty of unexpected cups of tea over the weekend and Eloise was even found helping Oscar with his reading and spellings! ✨

Otto

- Otto has been being extra kind to Laila-Beth. On Saturday he agreed to have a sleepover with Laila-Beth in his bedroom and let her sleep in his bed and he's slept on a mattress on the floor.
- On Sunday he let Laila-Beth wear one of his football shorts and top and played football with her in the garden.
- He also put his muddy clothes from a bike ride in the washing machine and put the powder and fabric conditioner in ready to wash it.

Natasha

- Natasha has been kind for her homework task over the weekend with tea-making :-)) and unprompted tidying of her bedroom.

Davi

- Davi made cookies for friends who were sick
