Kian has illustrated a poem.

Ocean Travel

If I could travel thru oceans blue
these are the things that I would do.

Fly with puffins under the sea
Dive with sea turtles fish for my tea.

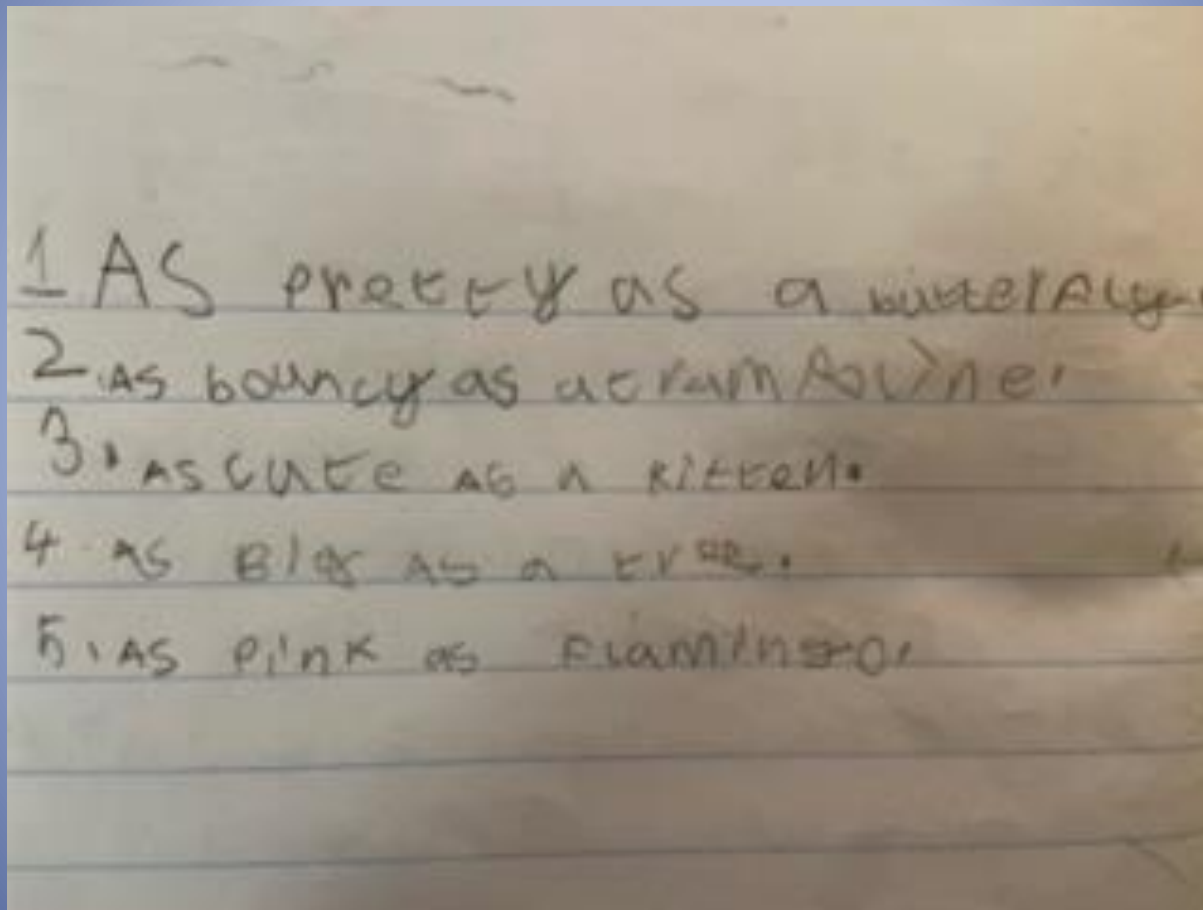

Cling to the tail of a rolling whale
Loop with dolphins in a buffering gale.

Soar with an eagle Hunt with a shark Flick with seals Fly home before dawn.

Jennifer Tweedie

A hand-drawn illustration of a fish, likely a koi or goldfish, with a purple head and tail. The body is covered in multi-colored scales in shades of green, blue, orange, and white. The fish is swimming in a circular blue area representing water, with small blue dots scattered around it.

Clara has written some similes.

Strange Cloud sightings! (Reporters Toby and Lana)

Strange Cloud Shapes Found!

Last night a man called Toby saw a strange shaped cloud that looked like a star from a tower. He saw an old man and his grandson on the tower. Then Toby told his brother Jude. "Wow!" said Jude.

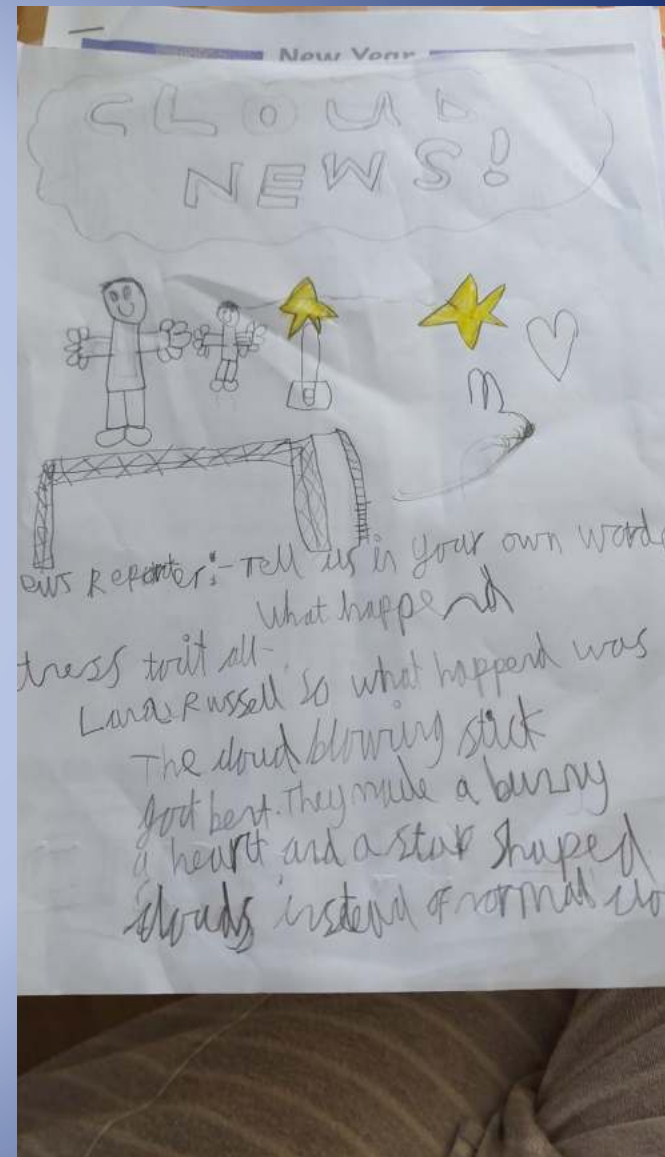

At the park Toby & Jude Rodham were being interviewed about what they saw in the sky.

Interviewer: "So, Toby what did you see in the sky?"

Toby: "I saw a cloud shaped as a star!"

Interviewer: "And where was it coming from?"

Toby: "It was coming from a tower with a child and his Grandpa."

Class 3 have been reading Wind in the Willows

Jack has been using evidence from the text to describe the character of Toad.

Word or phrase to describe Toad	Evidence from the text
Friendly	"It's never the wrong time to call on Toad" (by Rat)
Nice	"He must be a very nice animal" observed the Mole
Rich	"Toad is rather rich" (by Rat)
Excitable and expressive	"Hooray" "The open road, the dusty highway." "I want to show you the world" "Glorious, stirring sight! The poetry of motion! O bliss, O poop-poop! O my! O my!"
Bossy, forceful, presumptuous	"I was going to send a boat down to the river for you, Ratty, with strict orders that you were to be fetched up here at once, whatever you were doing."
Does not care	Rat talks to him about his rowing and his recklessness. "It's about your rowing"
Rude	Interrupts people when they speak and he is dismissive. "O, pooh! Boating!"
His time is important	"Sheer waste of time, that's what it is."
Selfish	He makes his friends do whatever he wants and not what they want. "We"
Needy	"I can't possibly manage without you" Another example is when Rat says he has to stay and help him rather leave.
