Sophie's lighthouse writing and Emil's Tigger.

Literacy - The Lighthocoe I was working at a table in why table was my living quarters) in the tawer. Distracted by the Inside of the repeated cheering, I attempted to block at the said by slowinging the open window shut. Suddenly, I head to noise grown upstein I quickly stand, knocking over the pile of backs on my dask grated my too box and staggeded up the stein. The light had extinguished ... There was about ahead, IT WAS GOING TO CRASH I had to give the light I attempted to pick it up When it stipped out of my hunds and shattened into ting bits of glass evanywhere. There was no way giking it now. Everything went silent, the repeated cheering had slopped But then, I saw a glimpse of light at of the corner or my eye I turned around and saw averyone walking up the hill all carrying lanterns. It was a minicle! They all approached the lighthouse and started climbing up the 200 stains. With the holp of everyone, the boot ginally saw we und turned around. And that's has everyone soved my job that day as a lighter. keeper.
