

Johnny's story and topic work

THE COG CURSE

Once upon a time there lived this girl she loved doing ballet. Her father made shoes and her mother cleaned Houses. One day when her father and mother were working she heard a knock on the door. She slowly bit by bit opened the door because her mother told her not to. It was a package she was tempted to open it so she did it pulled her in and everything went black. All of a sudden she woke up she saw that she was in a new world and in a cog shaped dress? She saw a clock tower so she claimed it to her self the people didn't like that she claimed it so they cursed her now every day she had to dance to keep the town alive

The end

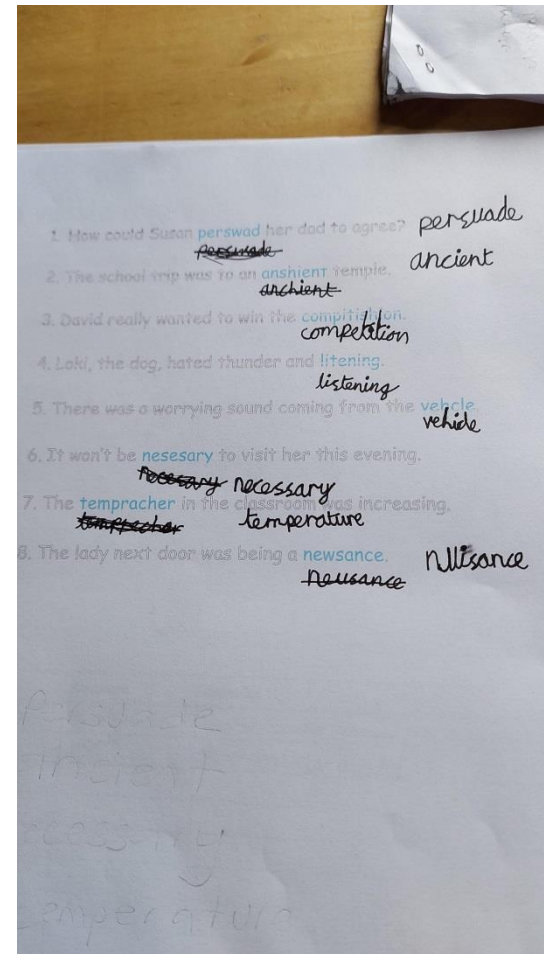

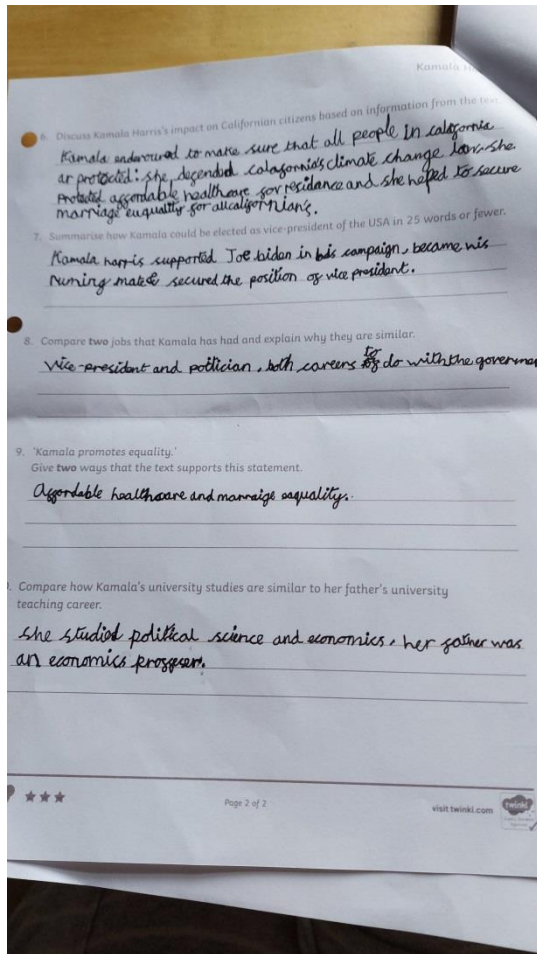

Use an atlas and online research to label the map and complete the table. The first one has been done for you.

| River | Continent | Countries |
|-------------|---------------|--|
| Amazon | South America | Ecuador, Colombia, Venezuela, Peru, Bolivia and Brazil |
| Danube | Europe | Germany, Austria, Slovakia |
| Ganges | India | India |
| Mekong | Asia | Laos |
| Mississippi | North America | USA, Mexico |
| Nile | Africa | Sudan, Egypt |
| Sepik | Asia | Indonesia |
| Volga | Europe | Russia |
| Yangtze | Asia | China |
| Zambezi | Africa | Zambia |

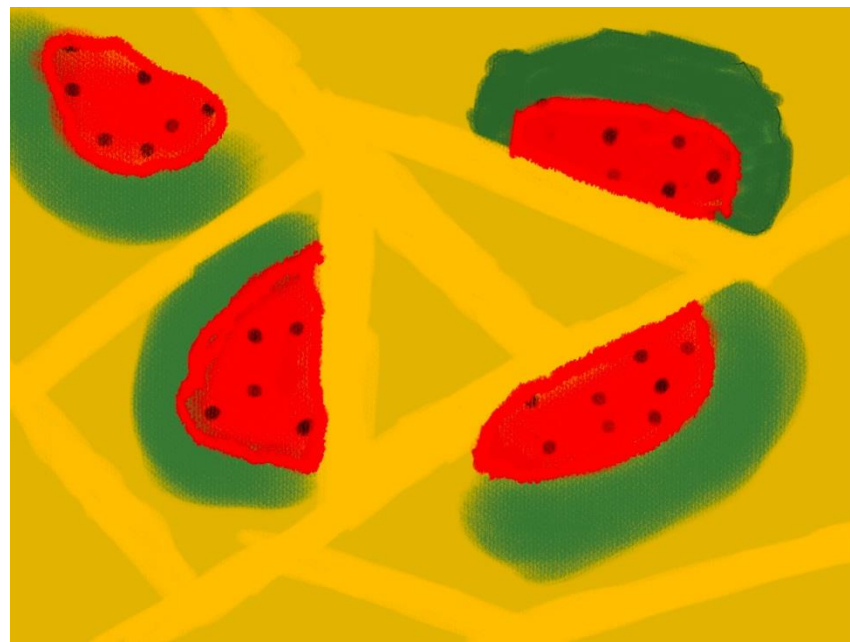

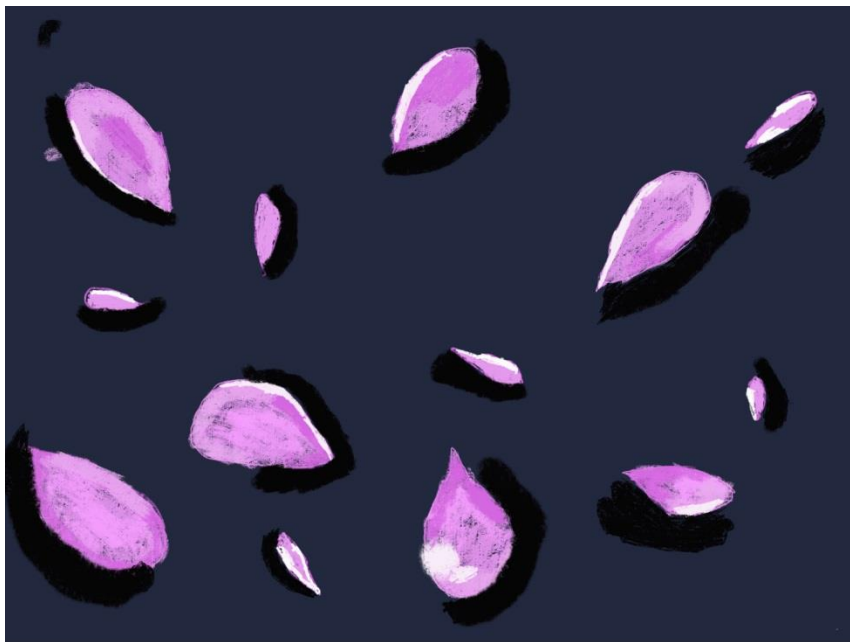

Misty Mountain, Winding River
Engage-World rivers
Page 1 of 1

Downloaded by Bestley at Tetworth Primary School on 28/01/21
Copyright © 2021 Cornerstones Education Limited

Louie's comprehension and spelling work

Lucy's art work

She's used an app

