Key Rules

- How to Score:
 - 1 rounder for hitting the ball and running to base four without stopping.
 - 2 rounders for hitting the ball and running to base number two without stopping.
 - 3 rounders for not hitting the ball and running to base four without stopping.
 - 4 rounders for two consecutive 'no balls' from the bowler.
 - 5 rounders for obstruction. E.g. if a fielder is standing in the path of a batter.
- A player is out if:
 - Run out: by a fielder before the ball touches the floor.
 - Stumped out: by a fielder at the base the batter is running to.
 - Run out: meaning the batter has run to a base where another batter is standing.
 - Run out: meaning the batter has run to a base where another batter is standing.
 - Run out: meaning the batter has run to a base where another batter is standing.
- The aim of the game is to score as many rounders as possible, while the fielding team try to get as many batters out as they can and limit the amount of runs scored. The team with the most rounders win. In primary school rounders matches are normally limited to the amount of 18 'good balls' per team.

Key Teaching Points
Underarm Bowler	Step forwards with your opposite leg to your throwing arm. Point your fingers to your intended target as you release the ball and use a straight arm. Aim for ball to reach the batter between knee and below head
Contact (Hitting the Ball)	Stand sideways on to the bowler. Hold the bat firmly in one hand. Hold the bat back behind your body, ready to strike through the ball. Keep your eyes on the ball. Swing your bat forwards. Follow through with your arm and shoulders so that your shoulder faces the way you want the ball to go.

Big Questions/Challenging Perceptions

There are a range of different jobs and careers in sport beyond those of just a performer. Jobs include a personal trainer who help others improve their health and fitness, sports coaches who work with different ages and abilities helping those to improve their performance, sport development officers who work with clubs and councils to get more people playing sport. These jobs are very competitive to get into as many people ASPIRE to have a career in sport. They require great communication skills, being organised and most of all a passion for sport!
